ANTONEY WAYMOUTH;

 THE GENTLEMEN'S ADVENTURES.
 A Sea Story.
 By WILLIAM H. G. BROWN.
 Author of "Dick Oliver and his Redskins," "The Prairie of the Frogs," &c. &c.
 With Illustrations.

"These are the exciting adventures of two young men who sailed from the shores of England to the then fortunate time when they had to escape to fight the Spaniards. After their hard fighting with the Spanish and Portuguese, in which they destroyed many vessels and secured large amounts of treasure, they were captured and confined in a Portuguese fortress, from whence they escaped to a land ruled by the Indians. They were received with a warm welcome by the Indians, and finally returned to their houses with a large amount of the treasure which had been saved to them."

INTERNAL REVENUE MANUAL.

We have just published a MANUAL OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE, written by CHARLES N. EMMERSON, esq., the Attala of the Internal Revenue District.

This work, unlike any which has preceded it, will in familiar style detail the duties of Assessors and their Assessors, Collectors and their Deputies, Inspectors, &c., and is designed to afford to those officers a practical manual, and to the public at large, a clear and simple method of making his returns, and fulfilling his obligations to the Government.

The work embodies a full and succinct analysis of the Law, and all its amendments, with full schedules, and the more important Decisions and Rulings of the Department; also a Table of Cases, which will be of great assistance to all to determine at a glance to what taxation they are subject.

The author is a gentleman of well known legal ability, who has been Assessor since the law was inaugurated, of the West, and has had much experience in the practice of law, and in the various subjects of taxation in the United States; and is also producing to the Government, in proportion to population and wealth, as is supposed, the very largest amount of revenue.

This work contains 223 Royal Octavo pages, and is sold at the low price of 75 cents in paper, and $1 in Cloth. The edition in paper covers sent by mail upon receipt of 75 cents.
